

Biomedix is excited to announce a new initiative to educate our users about PADnet, PAD and CVI.

A New Educational Series

Biomedix Academy Launch

Monday, September 19th

In an effort to provide continuing education to our PADnet users, we are launching the Biomedix Academy, a weekly series of complimentary webinars. These webinars will enable existing users to enhance or refresh their PADnet skills, and enable new PADnet users to get up-to-speed without formal training.

Monday, Noon Eastern 4 Strategies to Identify Patients Who Need a PADnet Test	Tuesday, Noon Eastern How to Perform a Venous Study with PADnet	Wednesday, Noon Eastern How to Perform an Arterial Study with PADnet	Thursday, Noon Eastern How to Generate High-Quality Diagnostic Data with PADnet	Friday, Noon Eastern Advanced Topics for additional studies, contraindications, and challenging patients
